DETAILED ACTION

Specification

1. The following guidelines illustrate the preferred layout for the specification of a utility application. These guidelines are suggested for the applicant's use.

Arrangement of the Specification

2. As provided in 37 CFR 1.77(b), the specification of a utility application should include the following sections in order. Each of the lettered items should appear in upper case, without underlining or bold type, as a section heading. If no text follows the section heading, the phrase "Not Applicable" should follow the section heading:

- (a) TITLE OF THE INVENTION.
- (b) CROSS-REFERENCE TO RELATED APPLICATIONS.
- (c) STATEMENT REGARDING FEDERALLY SPONSORED RESEARCH OR DEVELOPMENT.
- (d) THE NAMES OF THE PARTIES TO A JOINT RESEARCH AGREEMENT.
- (e) INCORPORATION-BY-REFERENCE OF MATERIAL SUBMITTED ON A COMPACT DISC.
- (f) BACKGROUND OF THE INVENTION.
  - (1) Field of the Invention.
  - (2) Description of Related Art including information disclosed under 37 CFR 1.97 and 1.98.
- (g) BRIEF SUMMARY OF THE INVENTION.
- (h) BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF THE SEVERAL VIEWS OF THE DRAWING(S).
- (i) DETAILED DESCRIPTION OF THE INVENTION.
- (j) CLAIM OR CLAIMS (commencing on a separate sheet).
- (k) ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE (commencing on a separate sheet).
- (l) SEQUENCE LISTING (See MPEP § 2424 and 37 CFR 1.821-1.825. A "Sequence Listing" is required on paper if the application discloses a nucleotide or amino acid sequence as defined in 37 CFR 1.821(a) and if the required "Sequence Listing" is not submitted as an electronic document on compact disc).

3. The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: On page 5, of the specification, Applicant has the section heading "DETAILED DESCRIPTION OF

THE DRAWINGS", however, the section heading should be, "DETAILED DESCRIPTION OF THE INVENTION". Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections – 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

4. Claims 1-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Hinchey et al (US Patent Application, Pub. No.: US 2002/0122547 A1).

5. In regards to claims 1 and 13, Hinchey discloses a method, logic, and apparatus for telephony call management (See Abstract and pg. 1, paragraph [0008]) comprising: maintaining dial plan data comprising a plurality of route pattern definitions, each route pattern definition comprising one or more sub-strings each having an associated tag (See pg. 3-4, paragraph [0044] – [0045] and pg. 4, paragraph [0047]); maintaining configured routing data comprising a configured route pattern including an expansion indicator (See pg. 5, paragraph [0054]); accessing the configured routing data to read the configured route pattern; identifying the expansion indicator in the configured route pattern; accessing the dial plan data responsive to identifying the expansion indicator; and while accessing the dial plan data, for each of the route pattern definitions in the dial plan data; generating a route pattern based on the one or more sub-strings for the route pattern definition; and entering the generated route pattern into a live dial database (See Fig. 1, route database/route server 114 and Fig. 3, route database 326) for use in routing calls placed by users (See pg. 3, paragraph [0036]; pg. 5, paragraph [0055]; and pg. 6, paragraph [0060] – [0061]).

6. In regards to claims 2, 8, and 14, Hinchey discloses the method, apparatus, and logic, wherein: the dial plan data implements North American Numbering Plan (See pg. 3, paragraph 0043]; and the live dial database specifies routing of telephone calls from managed voice over Internet protocol (VoIP) devices (See pg. 1, paragraph [0005] and pg. 2-3, paragraph [0034]).

7. In regards to claims 3, 9, and 15, Hinchey discloses the method, apparatus, and logic, wherein the dial plan data further comprise a text file listing each of the route pattern definitions (See pg. 6, paragraph [0061] and pg. 7-8, paragraph [0078]).

8. In regards to claims 4, 5, 10, 11, 16, and 17, Hinchey discloses the method, apparatus, and logic, wherein: the configured routing data further comprise a route filter (See Fig. 3 and routing policies 320); and the method further comprises, for each of the route pattern definitions in the dial plan data, generating the route pattern and entering the generated route pattern into the live database if the route pattern definition satisfies the route filter (See pg. 6, paragraph [0060] – [0061]).

9. In regards to claims 6, 12, and 18, Hinchey discloses the method, apparatus, and logic, wherein the configured routing data further comprise digit discard instructions, the digit instruction specifying digits to retain when routing calls placed by users, the digits specified using the associated tags (See pg. 5-6, paragraph [0058] and pg. 6, paragraph [0064]).

10. In regards to claims 7 and 20, Hinchey discloses a telephony call management apparatus (See Fig. 9 and computer system 900) comprising: a memory (See Fig. 9, operating memory 912, and storage memory 916) storing a call management application (See pg. 8, paragraph [0085] – [0087]), a live dial database, configured routing data comprising at least one configured route pattern that includes an expansion indicator, and dial plan data comprising a plurality of route pattern definitions, each route pattern definition comprising one or more sub-strings each having an associated tag (See pg. 3-4, paragraph [0044] – [0045] and pg. 4, paragraph [0047]); and a processor (See Fig. 9 and processor 908) operable, when executing the call management application (See pg. 8, paragraph [0085] and pg. 8, paragraph [0088]), to access each route pattern in the configured routing data, to identify the expansion indicator, and, responsive to identifying the expansion indicator, to access the dial plan data and, for each of the route pattern definitions in the dial plan data, to generate a route pattern based on the route pattern definition and to enter the generated route pattern into the live dial database (See pg. 3, paragraph [0036]; pg. 5, paragraph [0055]; and pg. 6, paragraph [0060] – [0061]).
